Dear Congressman San Nicolas,

Hafa Adai! I am in receipt of your letter dated November 25th, 2019. Looking at our Legislative calendar, I am confirming Friday January 6th, 2019 at 4 PM for your first annual Congressional Address. You can have your staff coordinate with my Communications Director, Mr. Chirag Bhojwani to coordinate the logistics. With the holidays around the corner, I urge that you meet with him as soon as possible so that we can accommodate any special requests you may have.

Over the last few months, I have had constituents bring to my attention an array of federal-territorial issues that I hope you can be able to address. These issues include the following:

- Federal efforts to address Agent Orange, PFAS and other contaminants on Guam
- Federal efforts to pay our people who were affected by radiation exposure (RECA)
- Improved healthcare services for our Veterans
- War Claims
- Equal voting rights for the most Patriotic people in the country
- Medicaid disparity that negatively impacts the territories
- Cockfighting ban
- Lack of local input sought by the Federal Government regarding the Guam Buildup
- Earned Income Tax Credit
- Guam's Political Status

I am sure that over the last 11 months in Congress, you have been able to have countless meetings where you have been advocating for the People of Guam. As the Speaker of the 35th Guam Legislature, and as your constituent, I look forward to hearing about your progress.

Happy Thanksgiving
